

we have a right to not be bothered by marketser at home. wisconsin has the right right idea, YOU need to follow what we are doing, your job is to protect consumers, not special interests. if the people of wisconsin want this (and by the numbers they do), you have a duty to respect the will of the people.